

CordyMax Cs-4

FOOD SUPPLEMENT WITH CORDYCEPS MUSHROOM

CordyMax Cs-4 is a proprietary, standardised extract of Cordyceps sinensis mushroom that helps to tone the body, protect the liver and the kidneys.

Our exclusive CordyMax Cs-4 formula is recognised in Mainland China as the fermented cordyceps mushroom product, offering interesting benefits. Over 15 years of extensive scientific research resulted in this Cs-4 strain. In fact, CordyMax Cs-4 has been placed under intellectual property protection and can boast being the first strain recognised by the Chinese government.

CordyMax Cs-4 is manufactured according to the Pharmedex 6S Quality Process and is standardised by High Performance Liquid Chromatography (HPLC) - an instrument used to determine the chemical makeup of any sample - to guarantee potency and consistent results of active ingredients.
